

Our forensic accountants and litigation specialists look into and beyond the numbers. Our team draws on their diverse backgrounds across numerous disciplines to deliver objective analyses and expert witness testimony. Whether you need someone to quantify economic damages, such as in a lost profits case or a wrongful termination suit, trace assets in a hotly contested divorce, resolve an earn-out dispute, or investigate a misappropriation or other accounting irregularity, our professionals are here to help.

UNTANGLING YOUR MOST COMPLEX MATTERS

We work side-by-side with some of the most well-respected law firms in the region on a wide variety of complex financial disputes and accounting investigations. Our team offers the experience, training, and resources to help you resolve complicated financial cases and keep you moving forward.
